

GOAL

The goal of the eight-hour level II course is to enable the non-commissioned security officer with the basic understanding and the minimum skills necessary to perform their job.

OBECTIVES

Knowledge of the Security Bureau
Rules and responsibilities of the Security Officer
Understanding of offenses and arrests
Report writing skills
Handling of emergency situations
Non-violent conflict resolution

TERMINAL GOAL

Upon the completion of the Level II and the prior Level I course, the non-commissioned Security Officer should be able to have a basic comprehension of their job requirements and skills needed for the performance of their job. The security company will add the specific needed requirements for the individual to perform the duties in their employment.